Issue 1: UNABLE TO ADD/ CREATE CONTENT IN COURSE OR SUB-COURSE/ SERVICES OR SUB-SERVICES

currently unable to add or create content in the course or sub-course sections from the backend. This issue is directly affecting the ability to create new courses or modify existing course pages, which is blocking updates and new content additions.

CREATE COURSE CONTENT

Course Name: *	Software Testing
Heading: *	Software Testing Training – Build a Career in Quality Assurance
Image:	Choose file software-testing-banner-web-icon...e-approach-usability-2RCCXHF.jpg
Description: *	Testing

Back   Create

CREATE SERVICE CONTENT

|
Service Name: *	Select Service
Heading: *	Cybersecurity & CompTIA Security+
Image:	Choose file No file chosen
	The image field is required.
Description: *	Testing

Back   Create

When trying to create content on courses /services, it is throwing an exception error: php_fileinfo extension .

☐ Issue 2: UNABLE TO ADD ANY NEW IMAGES UNDER COURSE CONTENT OR SUB-COURSE CONTENT

It says Image filed is required but does not accept any image file

CREATE COURSE CONTENT

Course Name: *   Software Testing

Heading: *   Software Testing Training – Build a Career in Quality Assurance

Image: Choose file   No file chosen

                        The image field is required.

Description: *   Testing

                        Back   Create

EDIT SUB COURSE CONTENT

Sub Course Name: *	CISSP Training
Heading: *	CISSP Training
	Choose file No file chosen
Image:

==Issue 3: Header and Body Content Not Separated (Content Appears in Single Box)==

The entire content, including both the header and body, is placed within a single content box, which makes it difficult to manage and format the content effectively. I am unable to modify the header and body separately in terms of font styles, sizes, or formatting, which limits flexibility and results in a cluttered appearance when the content is entered. This lack of separation affects both readability and presentation, and it's not ideal for maintaining a clean, structured layout. ==I'm requesting the develop to implement a clear separation box between the header and body sections, so they can be edited and styled independently.==

==ISSUE 4: Please remove Leadership Members from the webiste.==